

Help Support The Valdesi Family!

The Valdesi family (Paul, Pam, Daniel, and Abby), have experienced unparalleled challenges. Abby, 16, has been battling leukemia for the past eight months. She is a terrific and strong young lady, whose friends and family tirelessly love and support her. In April, the unthinkable happened. Daniel, their 24 year old son, a nurse at Hartford Hospital, was involved in a serious motorcycle accident on his way to work. He sustained severe spinal and pelvic injuries, along with multiple fractures. Dan had been sedated and is now currently recovering at a long-term rehabilitation facility.

Although Dan and Abby are fighters, we as a community, can back them up in this difficult fight. Step up on August 3rd and come out to support the Valdesi family!
